Gamma Alpha Omega Chapter Takes Home Three Awards at Greek Awards Event at Arizona State University

Tempe, AZ, February 17, 2009: The Alpha Chapter of Gamma Alpha Omega Sorority, Inc. has won three awards at the annual Arizona State University Greek Awards. The Chapter won “Most Improved GPA for fall 2008,” “Excellence in Recruitment and New Member Program,” and the “Gold Pillar Award.”

The Chapter was given the award for most improved GPA for raising their GPA to the second highest GPA in the NALFO Council at Arizona State University. The women at this chapter received the “Excellence in Recruitment and New Member Program” for the extensive and well organized recruitment and new member program that promotes the success and achievement of their new members while also instilling the values and ideals of the sorority.

The “Gold Pillar Award” is possibly the highest award of distinction as it requires a chapter to be involved in everything from community service to campus involvement to academics. The Alpha Chapter of Gamma Alpha Omega Sorority, Inc. has shown their dedication to higher education and service to the community through the acquirement of these awards.
